

GenRes & CaPP3 Study Day

Friday 26th June 2015

UCL Partners

3rd Floor, 170 Tottenham Court Road

London W1T 7HA

10.30 - 11:00	Coffee and registration
11:00 - 11:10	Welcome Professor Sir John Burn, CaPP3 CI, NIHR Collaborative Group for Genetics in Healthcare & National Chair NIHR Clinical Research Network : Genetics
11:10 - 12:00	What does the 100K project mean to GenRes? Dr Clare Turnbull, Clinical Lead, Genomics England 100,000 Genomes Cancer Programme Dr Christine Patch, Consultant Genetic Counsellor/Manager, Guy's Hospital Interactive session: how do you recruit to 100,000 genomes while also recruiting to portfolio studies?
12:00-12:20	IMAGINE : Intellectual Disability and Mental Health: Assessing Genomic Impact on Neurodevelopment UKCRN 17635 Dr Lucy Raymond , Consultant Clinical Geneticist Cambridge
12:20 – 12:40	Supporting families of Children with Undiagnosed Genetic Conditions Lauren Roberts, SWAN UK (Syndromes Without A Name)
12:40- 13:40	LUNCH
13:40 – 14:10	Study News: Stand Up & Musketeers' Memorandum An opportunity to present news about your study
14:10-14:25	Clinical trial data management: MACRO Oli Cram, InferMed
14:25 – 15:05	This is your time: cTIMPS in Genetics, the challenges. Group session
15:05 – 15:15	Tea & coffee
15:15 – 15:55	CaPP3 – Interventional Cancer Genetics: can we treat? Professor Sir John Burn, CaPP3 CI, NIHR Collaborative Group for Genetics in Healthcare & National Chair NIHR Clinical Research Network : Genetics Q&A
15:55 – 16:00	Close

The GenRes & CaPP3 Study Day has been sponsored and organised by the Collaborative Group for Genetics in Healthcare (CGGH) & the CaPP3 study